November is Here!

November is my favorite month, with Thanksgiving being the reason why. There is nothing better to me than crowding around the TV with my family watching the parade and football. Then the night ending with my Aunt making the most amazing dinner of the year. But a big holiday happens in November that is very special to my family and I and it's often over looked. VETERAN'S DAY. As a military brat that goes back multiple generations, I personally appreciate all that our service men and women do on a daily basis. So this year on Veterans Day, November 11, 2011 I'm offering all Veteran's (active duty, retired and reserve) a special THANK YOU. A free 30 minute service of your choice. Simply click Schedule Now, choose the military thank you option, select a time on Friday Nov. 11 you would like to come in, type your service choice in the notes section (facial 30/warm geranium back treatment/wax/lash fill/ etc.) show up with your military id and enjoy. No I'm not forgetting those amazing military spouses, the same offer applies to you. A simple way for me to say a very big THANK YOU.
